NEW FLAG OF 48 STATES IS UNFURLED

One of the first new flags of the nation containing 48 stars has been received by the forest service department and it now floats above the government building at Twenty-fourth street and Lincoln avenue.

The two new stars signify the admission of Arizona and New Mexico into the Union.

The flag has carried but 46 stars since the admission of Oklahoma. Utah was admitted into the Union in 1895, preceding Oklahoma into the galaxy of states.

'FROM THE MANGER TO THE CROSS'

The combining of master minds with the beautiful and inspiring effects which can be produced by the camera makes this pictorial drama of the redemption of mankind the finest of the kind ever made. The subject has been handled with reverence and it is designed to bring the subject close to the hearts of those who witness it.

One who has looked upon the picture cannot help but feel the solemnity of the situation and leaves the theatre with the great story deeply impressed upon his mind.

Said Dr. Parkhurst, "I yielded myself unreservedly to the influence of the occasion and came away from the representation with the feeling that the transactions in our Lord's life had been brought nearer to me rather than pushed farther away. The drama can not fail to be a means of instruction and religious culture."

Not the least attractive part of the films is the Biblical quotations preceding each change of subject. Carefully chosen, they add much to the pictures.

This makes an excellent method of placing before children that which can never be so vividly described.

This grand and wonderful production will be at the Globe theatre for four days beginning Easter Sunday, March 23rd and continue Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The first show will start Sunday evening promptly at 6:15. Doors will open at 6 o'clock. The second show will start 7:30 p. m., the third at 8:45 and the last show at 9:50 p. m.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday there will be two shows each afternoon beginning promptly at 2:30 and the night show will start at 7:15 sharp on week days. Admission 25 cents, children 10 cents.

D. C. ECCLES BACK FROM NORTH

David C. Eccles returned from the northwest last evening, after spending two weeks looking after interests connected with the Eccles companies.

He is pleased with conditions and states that the prospects for the season are quite promising.

Mr. Eccles says that weather conditions are as unsettled as are here, but the storm of recent date was not of a damaging nature.

"There is nothing to be given out," said Mr. Eccles this morning, "regarding building operations on the Eccles skyscraper. The contract for the erection of the building has been let to the Dinwiddie company and building will begin as soon as weather conditions will permit, contingent in a degree, of course, on the decision of the supreme court respecting controverted rights to the south wall of the old structure."

DAMAGE TO COLLIER NOT EXTENSIVE

Washington, March 20.—The damage sustained by the naval coller Jason by the explosion of the Alum Chine's cargo of dynamite in Baltimore harbor was not so extensive as was at first supposed. She had just completed a satisfactory test of her coaling gear, discharging more than 100 tons of coal per hatch per hour.

A brush should be kept for the purpose of scrubbing vegetables.

NEW VOICE TO BE HEARD ON SUNDAY

Ogden music lovers will have the opportunity of hearing a new voice in Utah Sunday. Mrs. V. B. Cutler sings in Utah publicly Sunday for the first time. Mrs. Cutler is a high soprano and has held the position of soloist in one of Chicago's largest churches, has been soloist in oratorio work frequently besides doing concert work. Mrs. Cutler will sing the soprano solo parts in a rendition of the Messiah, to be given in Salt Lake this spring. She has been given the highest praise by those who have heard her.

Mr. Melvin Peterson, baritone, has been heard but once in Ogden. Mr. Peterson was one of the soloists with the Tabernacle choir last year on its eastern trip and won generous commendation for his solo work.

FELLOWSHIP IS THE SUBJECT TONIGHT

Tonight the union holy week service will be in the First M. E. church, 451 Twenty-fourth street, at 8 o'clock. "The Day of Fellowship" will be the theme. This was the day on which Christ met His disciples in the upper room for His farewell conversation and feast of communion. So the meditation will cover the preparation of the upper room, the strife among the disciples, the washing of the feet, the institution of the Lord's Supper, the farewell conversation and intercessory prayer, in both of which the thought of fellowship both with God and with each other is emphasized.

Last night the services were in the Congregational church. Rev. Brainard touching showed what must have been the conflict and the victory in the soul of the Christ during the day of quiet retirement. Mr. E. L. Haus sang.

DEFINITION FOR SOCIALISM GIVEN

Mary L. Geffs of Denver delivered the fourth of the series of Socialist lectures at the Tabernacle Wednesday night to a fairly large audience, despite the fact that the weather was so bad that the Socialists have had to accompany their lectures.

Mrs. Geffs has had an interesting and eventful career. She came of a well to do family, married at 17, was left a widow at 25 with four children, and went to work in the sweat shops and then took up newspaper reporting. She has run the whole gamut of newspaper experience, from reporter to special writer, to editor and publisher. Her versatility and well cultivated form of expression and her refined manners endeared her to the audience and made her a highly successful lecturer in the cause she so ably represents.

In the course of her remarks last night Mrs. Geffs mentioned the vast educational movement undertaken by the Socialist party through its Lyceum bureau, covering the whole of the United States, and by means of the tons upon tons of literature on social, economic and industrial subjects that is being distributed and sold. She stated that the Socialists have everything to gain and nothing to lose by the education of the people, while the capitalist parties were in a different position.

Mrs. Geffs emphasized that our civilization and our progress are not keeping abreast; that Socialists want a civilization in harmony with the progress of the age. She said in part: "Civilizations are based upon industrial systems and have ever been and will ever be so. Hence the necessity of right industrial systems."

"The progress of an age is measured by its inventions and achievements."

"In our present day progress far outstrips civilization. This is because civilization of today is fitted to the industrial conditions of a hundred years ago."

She likened the civilization of today to an animal tethered to a stake. She said:

"It is straining on its tether and cannot come up with the progress of the age. The Socialists want to move the stake."

"We want the laborer, the housewife, to derive the full benefit of the progress that has been made in labor saving machinery and all modern conveniences. We want the hours of labor reduced in conformity with the labor saving power of the machines and modern inventions."

"I will give the briefest and most comprehensive definition of Socialism I have ever seen. It is this: That Socialism means the social ownership of all things socially used and socially necessary, and the private ownership of all things privately used and privately necessary.

"Where the Newest Styles Make their First Appearance"

"And with this I pass on to my subject, What Socialists want. Socialism; that is all. And as our field of operation is in this solar system—the earth; that is all. Our modesty is bounded only by the space that surrounds our chosen field, and equalled only by our assurance that sooner or later that field is ours."

"We want every department of the government—the executive, the legislative, the judicial, and even the military. We want the soldiers so that the other fellow will not be fooling around with a gun while we are trying to better conditions for the common good of all. We will perhaps disarm the army, and put it to more useful work."

"Sherman told us that 'War is hell,' if the capitalists want war, tell them to go there. Let them fight their own wars."

"The greatest good to the fewest number is the law of business of today. And civilization strains at the tether while self styled patriots stand guard over the stake. Socialists want the stake removed."

"Socialists want those who do work of the world to get the benefit of the wealth produced. Socialists want not only the greatest good to the greatest number, but ultimately the greatest good to the whole number."

"When the Socialists get in power they will most likely put in effect their pledge that appears in their platform and give work to all who want work. To do this they will likely endeavor to buy out some of the present factories and industries. If this is not successful or not practical, then they will build factories for the people and run them in competition with those who refuse to sell. If not competition, then we will use confiscation. Now let not the timid be shocked by this admission. Capitalism has been playing that very card all these many years. Even the most timid ought to be accustomed to it by this time. Or we will use the right of eminent domain, which is used today to build railroads and such."

Mrs. Geffs urged her hearers to attend the final lecture at the Tabernacle next Wednesday evening, when Robert Knight of Longmont, Colo., will wind up the series of lectures.

PRESENTATION OF STATE BANNER

The winning of the state prize banner by Utah camp No. 9990 was very fittingly celebrated last evening by the Modern Woodmen of America in a musical entertainment given the members and their friends. The Royal Neighbors of America were also in attendance. This makes the fourth time in ten years that the Ogden Woodmen have won this honor by securing the largest gain of any camp in the state.

State Deputy W. H. Tyer of Boise was present and gave a very interesting address. The program follows: Piano solo, Miss Nellie Ramey. Vocal solo, William Pickett. Vocal trio, J. W. Ramey, Miss Nellie Ramey and C. M. Ramey. Vocal solo, Miss Pruitt. Address, W. H. Tyer of Boise. Vocal solo, Wells Marriott. Vocal solo, Mrs. Myrtle B. Higley. D. J. Thurman gave some stories, calling to mind pleasant reminiscences. C. M. Ramey, district deputy head consul, also gave a short talk on the great growth of the order.

The balance of the evening was spent in a social time and light refreshments in the form of fruit were passed.

The meeting was presided over by W. H. Draney, consul.

SEVEN WORDS FROM THE CROSS

Services tomorrow afternoon from 12 to 3, conducted by the ministers of the evangelical churches, will inaugurate a new service to many Ogden people. It will be held in the First Presbyterian church and the sole theme of meditation and song will be a commemoration of the three hours of the cross.

The seven words from the cross will be meditated upon under the following leadership:

"Father, forgive them; they know not what they do"—Rev. Mr. Carver.

"Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise"—Rev. Mr. Rasmussen.

"Woman, behold thy son"—"My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me"—Rev. Mr. Wittenberger.

"I thirst"—"It is finished"—Rev. Mr. Brainerd.

"Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit"—Rev. Mr. Tester.

The singing of hymns between the meditations will give an opportunity for any to spend only a portion of the three hours in the church.

BAD WEATHER DELAYS WORK

For the past few days Contractor Roy Shedy has been compelled to suspend building operations on the steel gas holder of the Utah Light & Railway company on north Lincoln avenue, due to bad weather.

The inner lift of steel is being placed in position by the riveters, but there has been so much water inside the outer circle of steel that it has been almost impossible for the men to handle the material. A few men are at work today but little can be accomplished.

Mr. Shedy had figured on having the tank completed April 15, but delay may be the means of prolonging the time to May 1.

Vegetables with a strong odor should be cooked in plenty of water.
